6. Members will then be sworn as prescribed by "The Constitution Act."

1. [Repealed 17th July, 1934.]

(APPROVED 23RD JULY. 1934.)

Election of Speaker.

1A. (a) At the opening of Parliament, after the Members present have been sworn, or whenever the office of Speaker becomes vacant, a Member, addressing himself to the Clerk, shall propose some Member, then present, to the House for their Speaker, and move that such Member "Do take the Chair of this House as Speaker," which motion shall be seconded. A Member when proposed and seconded shall inform the House whether he accepts nomination.

(b) The Clerk shall then ask "Is there any further proposal," and if, within two minutes thereafter, there is no further proposal, the Clerk shall say "the time for proposals has expired." No Member may then address the House or propose any other Member, and the Clerk shall, without question put, declare the Member so proposed and seconded to have been elected as Speaker, and such Member shall be conducted to the Chair by his proposer and seconder, and shall take the Chair of the House as Speaker.

(c) If more than one Member is proposed as Speaker the Clerk shall, after the second proposal and after each subsequent proposal (if any) is made and seconded, ask "Is there any further proposal," and if, within two minutes thereafter, there is no further proposal, the Clerk shall say, "The time for proposals has expired." No Member may then address the House, or propose any other Member, and the House shall proceed to elect a Speaker by ballot as hereinafter provided.

(d) The Clerk shall cause the bells to be rung for two minutes, after which the doors shall be locked.

The Clerk shall announce the names of the Members proposed (hereinafter called the candidates), and shall cause each Member present to be provided with a ballot-paper certified by the Clerk, and shall also provide a ballot-box and place the same upon the Table of the House.

Upon such ballot-paper the Member receiving it shall write the name of one of the candidates. It shall be sufficient to write the surname only unless there are two or more candidates of the same surname, in which case the initials of the candidate or the name of his electoral district shall be added to the surname. Having marked his ballot-paper as provided, the Member voting shall deposit it in the ballot-box.

(e) The proposer of each candidate shall name some Member present to be a scrutineer. The scrutineers and one of the Clerks at the Table (to be named by the Clerk) shall when directed by the Clerk retire and ascertain the number of votes for each candidate. Before giving such direction the Clerk shall direct that the doors be unlocked. The scrutineers shall make to the Clerk a written report of the result, which report shall be read to the House by the Clerk. Unless the Clerk otherwise directs, the same scrutineers and the same Clerk at the Table shall act in respect of all subsequent ballots and of any special ballots.

(f) No vote shall be informal which, in the opinion of the Clerk, identifies the candidate voted for. Whenever the opinion of the Clerk is required he shall leave the Chair and shall proceed forthwith to the room where the votes are being counted, and the vote in question shall be submitted for his opinion without disclosing to him any information in regard to the number of votes received by any of the candidates.

(g) Any candidate, with the consent of his proposer and seconder, may at any time except when a ballot or vote is actually being taken, rise in his place and require that his name be withdrawn as a candidate, and from the time of such withdrawal shall cease to be a candidate.

(h) If at any ballot (not being a special ballot provided for in paragraph (k) or (l)) at which there are more than two candidates, no candidate receives an absolute majority of the votes of the Members present, another ballot shall be taken, from which shall be excluded the candidate receiving the smallest number of votes, and so from time to time when necessary until the number of candidates is reduced to two, and of such two the candidate receiving the greater number of votes of the Members present shall be declared elected as Speaker, and he shall be conducted to the Chair by his proposer and seconder, and shall take the Chair of the House as Speaker. The provisions of paragraphs (d), (e), (f), and (g) shall apply to such ballots.

(i) As soon as any candidate obtains an absolute majority of the votes of the Members present (whether at a ballot or in open vote), the Clerk shall, without question put, declare such candidate elected as Speaker, and he shall be conducted to the Chair by his proposer and seconder, and shall take the Chair of the House as Speaker.

(j) If at any ballot (not being a special ballot provided for in paragraph (k) or (l)) the names of only two candidates are submitted to the ballot and the number of votes for each candidate is equal, a second ballot shall be held, and if at such second ballot the number of votes for each candidate is equal, the Clerk shall so declare, and may without question put, suspend the sitting and leave the Chair for such period (not exceeding two hours) as he thinks fit. The Clerk, unless one of the candidates requires that his name be withdrawn as a candidate, shall then say, "The votes being equal at the ballot it is necessary to take an open vote to decide this question." He shall then cause the bells to be rung for two minutes, and the doors to be locked, after which he shall again inform the House of the equality of voting and of the necessity of deciding the matter by an open vote. He shall then assign a side of the House to the voters for each candidate and shall direct each Member present to vote by taking his seat according to his choice. Each Member remaining in the House shall vote. The Clerk shall then appoint tellers for each side, and with them shall count the votes, and the candidate receiving the greater number of votes shall be declared elected as Speaker, and shall be conducted to the Chair by his proposer and seconder, and shall take the Chair of the House as Speaker.

If either of the candidates requires that his name be withdrawn from the ballot or vote, the remaining candidate shall be declared elected as Speaker and shall be conducted to the Chair by his proposer and seconder, and shall take the Chair of the House as Speaker.

(k) If at any ballot (other than a special ballot) it is impossible by reason of equality of votes, to determine which candidate shall be excluded in accordance with paragraph (h), the candidate to be excluded from the next ballot for the election of Speaker shall be determined by a special ballot, at which only the names of the candidates who received the smallest number of votes shall be submitted.

At a special ballot each Member present shall write upon his ballot-paper only the name of the candidate he wishes to retain. The candidate whose name appears on the smallest number of ballot-papers shall then be excluded, and the names of all the other candidates shall be submitted to the next ballot for the election of Speaker.

Subject to this paragraph the provisions of paragraphs (d), (e), (f), and (g) shall apply to any special ballot.

(l) If after any special ballot provided for in paragraph (k) it is impossible, by reason of equality of votes, to determine which candidate shall be excluded, a further special ballot shall be taken at which only the names of the candidates who received the smallest number of votes at the preceding special ballot shall be submitted, and if it is still impossible by reason of equality of votes to determine which candidate shall be excluded, the Clerk shall so declare, and may, without question put, suspend the sitting and leave the Chair for such period (not exceeding two hours) as he thinks fit.

The Clerk, unless one of the candidates requires that his name be withdrawn from the ballot, shall then say "The votes being equal at the ballot it is necessary to take an open vote to decide this question." For this purpose the procedure set out in paragraph (j) shall be followed, and the candidate receiving the smallest number of votes shall be excluded from the next ballot for the election of Speaker.

(m) After the House has proceeded to the election of a Speaker, no member shall address the House except to propose a Member as Speaker, or to second such proposal.

(n) Until the Speaker is elected, the Clerk shall act as Chairman, and shall decide all questions arising incidentally to such election of a Speaker. Unless otherwise directed by the House, he shall preserve the ballot-papers for one month, and shall then destroy them.

(o) The Clerk may, whenever he thinks fit, suspend the sitting and leave the Chair for any period not exceeding two hours.

(p) If at any time any Member, supported by five other Members, requires that the Clerk shall put the question "That strangers be ordered to withdraw" the Clerk shall forthwith put such question without permitting any debate or amendment.

putations.

78B. After Mr. Speaker or the Chairman has called the attention of the House or of the Committee to the conduct of a Member who persists in irrelevance or tedious repetition, either of his own arguments or of the arguments used by other Members in debate, a motion may be made "That Mr. Speaker [or the Chairman] do direct the Member to discontinue his speech," which question shall be put forthwith without amendment or debate, and if the same be decided in the affirmative Mr. Speaker or the Chairman shall direct the Member accordingly.

Irrelevance or tedious repetition.

(APPROVED 15TH SEPTEMBER, 1911.)

78c. (a) After any question has been proposed either in the House or in any Committee of the Whole, a motion may be made by any Member, rising in his place, and without notice, and whether any other Member is addressing the Chair or not, "That the question be now put," and unless it shall appear to the Speaker or

160. No strangers, or Members, not being of the Committee, shall be admitted at any time to a Secret Committee.

Chairman can only vote when voices equal.

161. The Chairman of a Select Committee can only vote when there is an equality of voices.

162. A Select Committee may adjourn from time to time; and, by leave of the House, from place to place. Committee adjourns.

163. All Committees sitting at the time that Mr. Speaker is about to take the Chair shall be informed by the Serjeant-at-Arms that Mr. Speaker is about to take the Chair, and all proceedings after such notice are declared to be null and void. All proceedings void after notice that Mr. Speaker is to take the Chair.

164. Except by leave of the House, no Select Committee may sit during the sittings of the House, or on any day on which the House itself is not appointed to sit. Not to sit during sitting or adjournment of the House without leave.

165. The evidence taken by any Select Committee of this House, and documents presented to such Committee, and which have not been reported to this House, shall not be published by any Member of such Committee, nor by any other person. Evidence, &c., not to be published before reported.

166. By leave of the House a Committee may report its opinion or observations from time to time, or report the minutes of evidence only, or proceedings from time to time. Report from time to time.

167. It shall be the duty of the Chairman of every Select Committee to prepare the report. Chairman to prepare report.

168. The Chairman shall read to the Committee, convened for the purpose of considering the report, the whole of his draft report, which shall be printed and circulated amongst the members of the Committee; and at some subsequent meeting of the Committee the Proceedings on consideration of draft report.

Chairman shall read the draft report paragraph by paragraph, putting the question to the Committee at the end of each paragraph, that it do stand part of the report. A Member objecting to any portion of the report shall propose his amendment at the time the paragraph he wishes to amend shall be under consideration.

Report brought up.

169. The report of a Committee shall be brought up by the Chairman, and may be ordered to lie upon the Table, or otherwise dealt with as the House may direct.

(APPROVED 29TH JANUARY, 1895.)

Committee of Public Accounts.

169A. At the commencement of every Session of Parliament the Legislative Assembly, according to the practice of Parliament with reference to the appointment of Select Committees, shall appoint a Select Committee of seven Members, to be called the Committee of Public Accounts, with power to send for persons, papers, and records.

Duties of the Committee.

The duties of the Committee of Public Accounts shall be as follows:—

(a) To examine the accounts of the receipts and expenditure of the colony, and to bring under the notice of the Legislative Assembly any items in those accounts, or any circumstance connected with them, to which it may consider the attention of the Legislative Assembly should be directed.

(b) To report to the House any alteration which may appear to the Committee desirable to be introduced in the form of or method of keeping the Public Accounts, or in the mode of receipt, control, issue, or payment of the public money.

- (c) To inquire into and report upon any questions which may have arisen in connexion with the Public Accounts.
- (d) To inquire into and report to the Legislative Assembly upon the investment of and dealings with the funds of Commissioners of Savings Banks.
- (e) To deal with any special references that may be made to them by the Legislative Assembly.

Upon motion in the usual manner made by any Member of the Legislative Assembly any matter of public account or any question of finance may be referred to the Committee. The Committee as soon as conveniently practicable shall deal with the matter so referred to them, and report to the Legislative Assembly the result of their inquiries.

CHAPTER 11.

INSTRUCTIONS TO COMMITTEES AND WITNESSES.

(Adopted 31st July, 1857.)

32. An instruction empowers a Committee of the whole House to consider matters not otherwise referred. Effects of an instruction.

33. It is an instruction to all Committees of the whole House to whom Bills may be committed, that they have power to make such amendments therein as they shall think fit, provided they be relevant to the subject-matter of the Bill; but Committees on Bills to make amendments relevant to subject-matter.

if any such amendments shall not be within the title of the Bill, they shall amend the title accordingly, and report the same specially to the House.

(APPROVED 28TH JULY, 1857.)

What instructions may and may not be moved.

170. Instructions may be moved ordering a Committee to make provision in a Bill; but not to empower a Committee to make such provision if they already have that power.

(Adopted 31st July, 1857.)

When instructions to be moved.

34. An instruction should be moved after the Order of the Day for going into Committee has been read, and not as an amendment to the question that Mr. Speaker do now leave the Chair.

Witnesses in custody.

172. Where a witness shall be in the custody of the keeper of any prison, such keeper may be ordered to bring the witness in safe custody, in order to his being examined, and from time to time as often as his attendance shall be thought necessary; and Mr. Speaker may be ordered to issue his warrant accordingly.

Summoned by Committees.

173. A Committee having power to send for persons, papers, and records may summon witnesses by its own orders, signed by the Chairman.

174. If any witness shall not attend, pursuant to the order of a Committee, his absence shall be reported, and the House will order him to attend the House; but such order may be discharged in case the witness shall have attended the Committee before the time appointed for his attending the House.

When witness does not attend a Committee

175. In any case the neglect or refusal of a witness to attend in obedience to an order of the House, or of a Committee having power to summon witnesses, or in obedience to a warrant of Mr. Speaker, will be censured or otherwise punished, at the pleasure of the House.

Neglect or refusal to attend.

176. When the attendance of a Member is desired, to be examined by the House or a Committee of the whole House, he is ordered to attend in his place.

Attendance of Members to be examined.

177. If a Committee desire the attendance of a Member as a witness the Chairman shall in writing request him to attend.

By a Committee.

(Adopted 31st July, 1857.)

36. If any Member of the House refuse, upon being sent for, to come, or to give evidence or information as a witness to a Committee, the Committee ought to acquaint the House therewith, and not summon such Member to attend the Committee.

If a Member refuse to attend.

37. If any information come before any Committee that chargeth any Member of the House, the Committee ought only to direct that the House be acquainted with the matter of such information, without proceeding further thereupon.

Procedure
on decision that a Bill ought to have been introduced as a private Bill.

264B. Whenever Mr. Speaker shall decide that a Bill which has been introduced as a public Bill ought to have been introduced as a private Bill, such Bill shall be dealt with as a private Bill, unless the House expresses the opinion that it is a public Bill, or not dissenting from Mr. Speaker's decision, shall order that all the Private Bill Standing Orders be dispensed with, in accordance with *Standing Order No. 131 relating to private Bills.

(APPROVED 27TH FEBRUARY, 1896.)

Restoration of lapsed Bills.

264C. When a motion to bring in any public Bill is agreed to, if such Bill bears a certificate from the Clerk of the Legislative Assembly that it is identical with a Bill as last agreed to by the House, which passed its second reading in the previous Session of the same Parliament, but was not finally disposed of by both Houses when the Session closed, then a motion may be made that such Bill be advanced to the stage it had reached in the Legislative Assembly in the former Session or to any earlier stage.

Procedure.

If such motion be agreed to the Bill shall thereupon be passed, without amendment or debate, through each of the stages authorized by the motion agreed to by the House, and thereafter shall be proceeded with and dealt with in the same manner as other Bills.

* Standing Order No. 131 relating to Private Bills repealed 12th September, 1911; no new Standing Order yet adopted.
