Special report to be presented on Fiskville inquiry

On Thursday 12 November, the Victorian Parliament's Environment, Natural Resources and Regional Development Committee will table in Parliament a special report on its inquiry into the CFA training college at Fiskville.

An interim report was presented in June and a final report will be delivered next year.

The special report is expected to be tabled around 10 am on Thursday 12 November and will be available after tabling from the Committee's website.
