Dear Members,
The CFA is an integral part of living in the bush. The men and women who man this service are dedicated and committed community members and most importantly volunteers. They have a huge vested interest in the communities that they are protecting. The command structure is not without flaws as we saw in Black Saturday, however the changes that are being proposed are not of benefit to this essential organisation. Daniel Andrews first attempts to unionise the CFA were scuttled so he is proposing to achieve his ends by other means. Leave the CFA alone for all our sakes. Thank you. Mary McBurnie
