

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Economy and Infrastructure Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Hearing this Monday for inquiry into RSPCA Victoria

The parliamentary inquiry into the RSPCA Victoria will hold its next public hearing on Monday 17 July.

The Economy and Infrastructure Committee will hear from Agriculture Victoria from 9:00 am to 10:30 am in the Legislative Council Committee Room at Parliament House.

The Committee is considering the appropriateness of the RSPCA's powers under the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals Act 1986 and how those powers have been used. It will also investigate the appropriateness and use of funding provided by the Victorian Government, as well as any other consequential matters the Committee may deem appropriate.

For more information on the inquiry, visit the Committee's website.

Issued: 14 July 2017