MEDIA RELEASE

Contact tracing inquiry to hear from Health Department

This Monday 23 November 2020, the Department of Health and Human Services will be presenting at a public hearing for the parliamentary inquiry into the Victorian Government's COVID-19 contact tracing system and testing regime.

Commencing at 1:00 pm, the online hearing by the Legislative Council Legal and Social Issues Committee will be broadcast live on the Victorian Parliament's website.

DHHS Secretary Professor Euan Wallace and Chief Health Officer Dr Brett Sutton will be among the departmental representatives presenting at the hearing.

The schedule of witnesses is available from the Committee's website.

The inquiry is considering the capacity and fitness for purpose of the Victorian Government's COVID-19 contact tracing system and testing regime.

The Committee is required to present its report to Parliament by 14 December 2020.

Issued: 22 November 2020
