Hi Lilian,

I was making reference to the Bangkok Rules https://www.unodc.org/documents/justice-and-prison-reform/Bangkok_Rules_ENG_22032015.pdf

Best,

SHINE acknowledges and pays respect to the Traditional Owners of the land on which we work, Elders past and present, and all Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples within these boundaries. We acknowledge the disproportionate impact parental incarceration has on Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children, families and communities and we work in partnership to address those impacts.

Everyone at SHINE for Kids from Executive staff to volunteers take seriously our commitment and responsibility to safeguarding children and young people across all our programs and services in a supportive environment that is caring, safe, nurturing, free from bullying, abuse, exploitation and neglect.
