

Media release

Select Committee on the 2026 Commonwealth Games Bid

Games inquiry hearing to scrutinise business case

Consultancy firms that contributed to the business case for the cancelled Commonwealth Games will be questioned by state MPs at a public hearing this week.

You can watch the live broadcast of the Legislative Council Select Committee from 10:30 am on Tuesday 5 December.

Representatives of Ernst and Young, DHW Ludus and MI Associates are scheduled to appear as part of the Upper House's ongoing probe into the 2026 Commonwealth Games Bid.

"We've received evidence which has been critical of the business case, so it's important we hear directly from the those who prepared it," Committee Chair David Limbrick said.

Athletics Australia and Vicsport are due to give evidence in the afternoon about the impact of the Games' cancellation on their athletes, wider participation in grassroots sport and losing proposed facilities.

The Department of Jobs, Skills, Industry and Regions (DJSIR), including Secretary Tim Ada has been recalled to appear before the Committee to discuss the ongoing costs related to the games and other matters.

You can see the full witness list and schedule for Tuesday's public hearing online.

Issued: 4 December 2023