

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Legal and Social Issues Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

New reporting date for youth justice centres inquiry

The reporting date has been extended to 6 September 2017 for the inquiry into youth justice centres in Victoria.

The Legal and Social Issues Committee is examining issues arising at the Parkville and Malmsbury Youth Justice Centres, including incident reporting; the security and safety of staff and young offenders; management culture and practices; as well as the oversight role of the Department of Health and Human Services.

More information on the inquiry is available from the Committee's website.
