

Public Accounts and Estimates Committee
Inquiry into 2020–21 Financial and Performance Outcomes

Supplementary Information

A clarification with regards to the transcript on page 4, is provided, noting that this was subsequently clarified as per page 20 of the transcript during the hearing.

Mr FRASER: We did. We have mental health practitioners employed now in every secondary school and also 82 additional mental health practitioners employed in special settings with secondary-age students.

More accurately, as per page 20 of the transcript as stated by Mr FRASER, there are 50 mental health practitioners employed in 82 specialist schools. There are also 288 mental health practitioners employed across the system, providing access to this service for every mainstream secondary school.

Stephen Fraser
Deputy Secretary
School Education Programs and Support

19 November 2021