

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Family and Community Development Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Health Department at next hearing on autism services

The Department of Health and Human Services will be presenting at the next public hearing on the autism services inquiry to be held on Monday 7 November.

The public hearing by the Family and Community Development Committee will be from 3:00 pm to 5:00 pm in Meeting Room G7 at 55 St Andrews Place, East Melbourne.

The Committee will also hear from the Principal of Kalianna School, which is located in Bendigo.

The inquiry is investigating the availability and adequacy of services provided by the Commonwealth, State and local governments across health, education, disability, housing, sport and employment services.

For the hearing schedule and more information about the inquiry, go to the Committee's website.
