MEDIA RELEASE

Local government groups at hearing on rate capping

This Wednesday 20 September, Rural Councils Victoria will be among three local government associations presenting to the next public hearing on the Victorian Government's rate capping policy.

The public hearing will commence at 7:00 pm in the Knight Kerr Room at Parliament House.

The Environment and Planning Committee's inquiry is examining the outcome of the Victorian Government's rate capping policy on councils' viability, service impacts on local communities and impacts on the provision of local infrastructure.

The hearing schedule and more details on the inquiry are available from the Committee's website.
