

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Electoral Matters Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Hearings next week on electronic voting

The Victorian Parliament's Electoral Matters Committee will hold public hearings next week on its inquiry into electronic voting.

The public hearings will be on Monday 22 August from 10 am-4 pm and Wednesday 24 August from 10 am-2:30 pm at 55 St Andrews Place, East Melbourne

Among those presenting evidence to the Committee will be electoral commissions, technology specialists and community advocacy groups.

Under the inquiry's terms of reference, the Committee is investigating the forms of electronic voting currently utilised in Victoria and other jurisdictions and their effectiveness. The Committee is also examining alternatives that are available that if implemented would ensure the continued integrity and security of the electronic voting system.

The schedule for the hearings and the submissions to the inquiry are available from the Committee's website.
