

PARLIAMENT OF VICTORIA
Legal and Social Issues Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

First hearing on Public Housing Renewal Program

Public hearings commence this Friday 10 November for the parliamentary inquiry into the Victorian Government's Public Housing Renewal Program.

The first public hearing will be held from 10:00 am to 3:45 pm in the Legislative Council Committee Room at Parliament House.

Among those presenting to the Legal and Social Issues Committee will be community housing and local government associations.

As part of its inquiry into the Public Housing Renewal Program, the Committee is examining plans to use private sector investment in new social housing.

Issues being examined include the ability to cater for all demographics including families, couples and singles, the effects on current public housing tenants, increase in density and any local environmental impacts, as well as any planning implications.

The hearing schedule and more details on the inquiry are available from the Committee's website.
