Questions taken on notice

Directed to: Wildlife Victoria

Received Date: 29 June 2023

1. MICHAEL GALEA Page no. 85

Question asked to Lisa Palma:

Lisa Palma: In terms of rescue case volume, I would need to come back to the committee on that because I do not have that at hand, just on what the normal rescue case volume is, and specifically the percentage our vets would normally attend to.

Michael Galea: Thank you. I would appreciate that. And possibly as well, on notice, if you are able to find data on any call-outs that you did receive that you could not attend to, that would be informative as well.

Response: See Attachment 1 (1a & 1b)

2. BEV MCARTHUR Page no. 86

Question asked to Lisa Palma:

Now, you state in your submission that all waterbirds, alive or deceased, are X-rayed to determine cause of death and for evidentiary purposes. Can you disclose how many birds were presented to you in 2023 that had in fact not been shot?

Response: See Attachment 1 (2)

3. BEV MCARTHUR Page no. 88

Question asked to Lisa Palma:

Well, how many birds did you rescue in the fire season?

Response: See Attachment 1 (3)
