Legal and Social Issues Committee

MEDIA RELEASE

Expert witnesses at end of life choices hearing

Medical and legal specialists will present their views on end of life choices when public hearings on the inquiry continue on Wednesday 24 February.

The Legal and Social Issues Committee will hear from the St Vincent's Hospital & Collaborative Centre of The University of Melbourne, the Australian Medical Association Victoria, and a Human Rights Law specialist from the Melbourne Law School.

The public hearing will be held from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm in the Knight Kerr Room at Parliament House. Media and the public are welcome to attend.
