Your position or role:

SUBMISSION

Social media platforms are very important to get information and to see what is going on, For cross referencing information and to keep things in the public spotlight . That should never be changed or censored in anyway as it could then possibly be used to manipulate public opinion. It should always be up to the individual to check what they are reading

Are you interested in appearing before the committee in person to talk about your submission?

No

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?

In the events in the covid blunder and the lies and manipulation with regards to the Andrews government has shown the importance of the need for unrestricted and uncensored access to information
