I disagree with your proposal to make school busses open for the public. Given how hard schools and organizations work these days on child safety and that every 45mins a child is abused in Australia I find your proposal absurd. How will child safety be managed on school busses with the general public? You cannot expect a bus driver to supervise and focus on their job: safely driving passengers! Teachers cannot be held responsible for student duty of care on busses and work tirelessly already on education and child safety. So how do you propose student safety with public in school busses? This proposal needs to be withdrawn immediately and child safety needs to remain at the forefront of school busses.
