Subject: Submission to Car Dooring Bill Inquiry

---

I think that the penalty for dooring is way too low. I think the penalty should be increased. I think there should be demerit points on a person's driver's license if the cyclist takes further action about the incident. Yes, I think that it is worth of being taken to court.

I also think that maybe there should be stickers placed somewhere obvious on the driver's side of the car to prevent this from happening. Just so the driver has a little reminder before opening his door. For me as a cyclist I think we should be focussing more on how we can prevent this from happening rather than what we can do to punish the person who has doored the cyclist. Although punishment comes into prevention I think there may be other ways as well. So I'm not saying punishment is a completely bad thing in preventing this from happening.

Yours Sincerely,
Isaac.
