YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

I am a full time permanent wheelchair user (manual/non electric).

I can use buses and trains but majority of the time the buses/trains are full or the bus isn't accessible.

I had a mptp card in my early 20s but didn't renew but I don't see why we should have to pay for the program.

We have to pay for so many medical equipment/devices etc., wheelchairs and for those of us that don't qualify for housing we need to try to save money so we can afford a place of our own.

I have had to rely on Uber passenger services but this involves me getting out of my wheelchair and having it taken apart to fit into the drivers car, I am concerned about this and I am concerned about the language barrier between myself and the driver as they are almost always only able to speak the most basic english.
