YOUR SUBMISSION

I believe there is a way to help with the homeless.

I believe if you did not have to declare one Boarder, on your Dva Partner pension application, (which i guess is the same for Centrelink), more people with a spare bedroom, and would open up their homes for a boarder. (I think it is fair if you have more than one boarder to declare it.) I think than with less housing demand, this would help bring down the rent prices. It would have a ripple on effect helping homeless. I think there could be a joint marketing campaign, do your bit for Australia, let out your spare bedroom, to help the community. May be advertised through not for charity. organisations.

Do you have any additional comments or suggestions?:

Have assertiveness training, and more education on what bullying is, to help with the violent bulling culture of Australians.
