What would have ended my homelessness:

Help from family

Government support to help me get to independent living

I might have avoided homelessness if the Government provided:

Alternate solutions

I went to Salvocare who told me to go to Launch housing, who told they could help me with 2 nights in Doveton. If I didn't have my car I don't know how I could have got there. After that I had to find my own accommodation, which was at my expense (hotels, motels). Now I've burned through most of my savings, which has impacted my ability to find affordable private rental.

What would you like to tell the Government about being without a home:

They need to find better solutions to end homelessness.

Thank you for taking the time to have you say to the Parliamentary Inquiry into Homelessness. This submission can be emailed to homelessnessinquiry@parliament.vic.gov.au or posted to:
