YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Australia needs to stand up for victims instead of enabling and protecting the sick individuals that abuse the most vulnerable. Once you harm a child your privacy is no longer right you can have. These measures need to be taken because the judiciary system is soft and more children are being harmed as a result. As a survivor of child abuse i know first hand what it's like to watch the person who abused you be protected by the very legal system that is meant to help you and in 20yrs nothing has changed the perpetrators have more rights and protection then the survivors and this sickens me that we allow this.

Are you interested in appearing before the committee in person to talk about your submission?
