YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:
After reading a current data on merijuana usage in Australia, I believe that making marijuana an illegal drug does not stop the consumption among the users. We should consider the financial aspect of the allowing the usage of merijuana. I believe that criminals are making more money and that money is used in further criminal activities. Decriminalisation with moderating consumption and sale of merijuana will help Australian economy a lot.
By doing this, we might stop monies going in the wrong hand and control the consumption within young age. An organised step in legalising merijuna for adults over 21 years will be a wise step.
It will help community control the usage of merijuna amongst school age children and will boost Australian economy.
By submitting this recommendation I am not advocating the usage of Merijuana. Being a Pharmacist, I believe that no one should use this highly addictive drug. But in my opinion government should find a way-out to stop the illegal trade which increase the criminal activities in the society. If government is thinking about legalising it, it should be legalised with restrictions for safer use.
