Submission:

In regard to (e), cannabis use has been found to be 114 times safer than alcohol use (<https://www.washingtonpost.com/news/wonk/wp/2015/02/23/marijuana-may-be-even-safer-than-previously-thought-researchers-say/?arc404=true>). It has also been shown to kill cancer cells, as well as having many other recognised health benefits.

In regard to recreational use, it is my opinion that cannabis should be no more regulated than alcohol. Alcohol is a far more dangerous drug with far more negative social impact, including in domestic violence. It's absurd that cannabis is more restricted than alcohol.
