YOUR SUBMISSION

Submission:

Cannabis should be legal for sale and regulated, people should be able to grow their own plants as well. This will assist in removing the black market surrounding its sale and related criminal activity due it it being currently illegal. It will open up another industry for income and taxation. Regulation should ensure that users will be obtaining a pure and safe product. There should be public education on it's usage and effects. The current drive drug testing is too excessive and restrictive, it does not accurately determine whether a person is affected at that point in time. The current testing can detect amounts many days later despite the user being unimpaired.
