

School Satisfaction with Support Services

Improving satisfaction with services delivered...

Satisfaction with Student Support Services increasing after additional investment of $25 million and program reform.

Further investment of $124 million in Primary Welfare Officers, to work with high needs students.

*Expected outcome, published in 2013-14 Budget Paper 3

