Consumer affairs: ministerial visits — city of Ballarat

635. MS TIERNEY — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Consumer Affairs): On which dates between 2 December 2010 and 14 April 2011 did the minister visit any locality within the city of Ballarat, and on each occasion:

- (1) Who did the minister meet with.
- (2) Did the minister make any commitment of public funds; and if so, for each commitment made —
  - (a) what was the dollar value of the commitment;
  - (b) to which individual or group was the commitment of funds made; and
  - (c) for what project or purpose were these funds committed.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

I visited numerous municipalities and communities throughout regional and country Victoria during the specified periods and in the course of doing so I undertook a number of engagements.

Gaming: ministerial visits — city of Ballarat

643. MS TIERNEY — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Gaming): On which dates between 2 December 2010 and 14 April 2011 did the minister visit any locality within the city of Ballarat, and on each occasion:

- (1) Who did the minister meet with.
- (2) Did the minister make any commitment of public funds; and if so, for each commitment made —
  - (a) what was the dollar value of the commitment;
  - (b) to which individual or group was the commitment of funds made; and
  - (c) for what project or purpose were these funds committed.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

I visited numerous municipalities and communities throughout regional and country Victoria during the specified periods and in the course of doing so I undertook a number of engagements.

Roads: bushfires — roadside vegetation management

4061. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Roads): In relation to the work being undertaken to identify specific guidance needs and regulatory barriers to undertake roadside vegetation management for bushfire consultation as identified in the Bushfire Royal Commission Implementation Monitor's Progress Report: was this implemented by July 2011 as indicated in the progress report; if not, when will it be implemented.

ANSWER:

I am informed that, as at the date the question was raised:

This work has been completed by the Department of Sustainability and Environment in consultation with the Local Government Native Vegetation Reference Group. The reference group is co-chaired by the Municipal Association of Victoria and includes representation from VicRoads, local councils, the Country Fire Authority and Department of Planning and Community Development.

Roads: bushfires — roadside management strategy

4064. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Roads): In relation to the review of the roadside management strategy under recommendation 62 of the Bushfire Royal Commission's Progress Report:

- (1) Was this strategy finalised by July 2011; if not when will it be finalised.
- (2) When will it be publicly released.

ANSWER:

I am informed that, as at the date the question was raised:

The review of the VicRoads roadside management strategy was completed by VicRoads. The revised strategy has been publicly released.

Roads: bushfires — road bushfire risk assessment

4066. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Roads): Was the road bushfire risk assessment guidelines and risk assessment tool completed by July 2011 as indicated in the Bushfire Royal Commission Implementation Monitor's Progress Report; if not when will it be finalised.

ANSWER:

I am informed that, as at the date the question was raised:

This work has been completed by VicRoads in consultation with the Country Fire Authority, Department of Sustainability and Environment and the Municipal Association of Victoria, including representatives from local councils. VicRoads has completed the implementation of the road bushfire risk assessment guidelines through regional briefings.

Community services: secure welfare health service provision — tender

4724. MS HARTLAND — To ask the Minister for Housing (for the Minister for Community Services):

- (1) Has there been a successful tender awarded for secure welfare health service provision.
- (2) What date was the tender awarded, and to whom.
- (3) Has service provision begun.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

There has been a successful tender awarded for secure welfare health service provision. The tender was awarded to Youth Projects Inc. in July 2011. Youth Project's service provision has commenced.

Ports: Lakes Entrance — port facilities

8136. MR BARBER — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Ports):

- (1) Is the current development of the Lakes Entrance port facilities, including the deepening of the ocean entrance, to provide deep water access for deep draft vessels servicing the offshore oil and gas rigs in addition to large fishing boats.
- (2) How much has the current dredging of the Gippsland Lakes ocean entrance changed in depth and extent compared to historic entrance depths and dredging practice.

ANSWER:

I am informed that, as at the date the question was raised:

- (1) The development of the Bullock Island wharf, Lakes Entrance, provides berthing facilities for the commercial fishers and industry service vessels. The maintenance dredging program provides safe ocean access for both recreational and commercial boating operators needing access to the port of Lakes Entrance.
- (2) It is not possible to provide a comparison between historic and current dredging depths due to the range of technologies and practices used and nature of records kept in the over 120 years history of dredging at Lakes Entrance.

Employment and industrial relations: General Mills Australia — East Bendigo factory

- 8180. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Employment and Industrial Relations: On what date did the Victorian government first become aware that General Mills Australia was planning to close its East Bendigo factory and move its operations to Mount Waverley.

ANSWER:

The Victorian government first became aware on 24 November 2011.

Employment and industrial relations: General Mills Australia — ministerial meetings

- 8182. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Minister for Employment and Industrial Relations: Has the minister met with General Mills Australia since being appointed minister in December 2010.

ANSWER:

Officers of the Victorian government are working closely with General Mills to provide employees affected by the consolidation of its pasta manufacturing operations in Bendigo to its Mount Waverley facility with access to a range of services including the Victorian training guarantee and employment services.

Employment and industrial relations: General Mills Australia — East Bendigo factory

- 8183. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Employment and Industrial Relations:

- (1) How many meetings have been held between representatives of General Mills Australia and representatives of the Department of Business and Innovation.
- (2) During these meetings were any offers of assistance made to General Mills to support the retention of the jobs at their East Bendigo factory.

ANSWER:

Officers of the Victorian government are working closely with General Mills to provide employees affected by the consolidation of its pasta manufacturing operations in Bendigo to its Mount Waverley facility with access to a range of services including the Victorian training guarantee and employment services.

Regional and rural development: General Mills Australia — East Bendigo factory

- 8184. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Regional and Rural Development): When did the Victorian government first become aware that General Mills Australia was planning to close its East Bendigo factory and move its operations to Mount Waverley.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

The government first became aware of General Mills plans to relocate its Bendigo East Factory when the company released a public statement on 24 November 2011.

Officers are currently working with General Mills to provide employees affected by the relocation of its Bendigo East operations with access to a range of services including the Victorian training guarantee and employment services.

Regional and rural development: General Mills Australia — East Bendigo factory

8185. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Regional and Rural Development): When did Regional Development Victoria first become aware that General Mills Australia was planning to close its East Bendigo factory and move its operations to Mount Waverley.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

The government first became aware of General Mills plans to relocate its Bendigo East Factory when the company released a public statement on 24 November 2011.

Officers are currently working with General Mills to provide employees affected by the relocation of its Bendigo East operations with access to a range of services including the Victorian training guarantee and employment services.

Regional and rural development: General Mills Australia — ministerial meetings

8186. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Regional and Rural Development): Has the minister met with General Mills Australia since being appointed minister in December 2010.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

Representatives of Pasta Master attended an industry roundtable I hosted in Bendigo on 23 February 2011.

They did not raise any concerns in relation to the future of the Bendigo East Factory during these discussions.

Regional and rural development: General Mills Australia — East Bendigo factory

8187. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Regional and Rural Development):

- (1) How many meetings were held between representatives of General Mills Australia and representatives of Regional Development Victoria.
- (2) During these meetings were any offers of assistance made to General Mills to support the retention of the jobs at their East Bendigo factory.

ANSWER:

I am informed that:

Representatives of the Victorian Government met with General Mills during early 2011.

Officers are currently working with General Mills to provide employees affected by the relocation of its Bendigo East operations with access to a range of services including the Victorian training guarantee and employment services.

Public transport: rail — disabled access

8198. MS HARTLAND — To ask the Minister for Planning (for the Minister for Public Transport): In relation to access and support for people with varying mobility needs:

- (1) If there is a problem with the lift at a station that does not have ramps —
  - (a) will station staff know where the next accessible station is;
  - (b) how do passengers access a maxi taxi, to which they are entitled;
  - (c) can passengers request that the maxi taxi take them home, instead of just to the next accessible station; and
  - (d) how do passengers get off the station on to the bus or taxi, for example at Laverton Station on platform 1 where there is no street access or alternative exit.
- (2) When accessible railway replacement buses are in operation —
  - (a) do passengers, such as those with certain scooters who may not be able to access buses, have the right to request a maxi taxi instead; and
  - (b) can passengers request that the maxi taxi take them home instead of to the train replacement bus stops.
- (3) Which train stations on the public transport network do not provide shelter from the rain in wheelchair areas.

ANSWER:

I am informed that, as at the date the question was raised:

The government expects Metro to make its services accessible to all people. In the event of a service disruption, passengers may contact Metro staff to obtain information about other accessible transport options. If Metro arrange a taxi to take a passenger to their intended destination on the rail network, the passenger may make a separate arrangement with the taxidriver to take them to an alternative location. Further information about shelters at railway stations will be available once an audit is completed later in 2012.
