Bushfire response: bushfire safety policy framework

4021. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Bushfire Response): In relation to the bushfire safety policy framework:

- (1) Has the framework been completed; if not, when will it be completed.
- (2) Will the results be released.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

The fire services commissioner released the revised bushfire safety policy framework in September 2011.

The new version contains amendments that take into account comments in the Bushfires Royal Commission Implementation Monitor Progress Report (July 2011) and from various stakeholders.

The fire services commissioner reviews and evaluates the framework after each fire season taking into account the lessons and experiences from the previous fire season, together with other bushfire safety developments and relevant research.

The framework is publicly available on the commissioner's website.

Bushfire response: fire refuges — policy review

4024. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Bushfire Response): When will the fire refuges policy review be completed.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

The fire services commissioner published the revised policy on community fire refuges, along with practices and procedures, on 13 October 2011.

The practices and procedures cover issues such as identification, designation, management and maintenance.

Additionally, in November 2011, permanent planning permit exemptions relating to community fire refuges and private bushfire shelters also came into effect, under the revised Victoria Planning Provisions (VPP). These provide planning permit exemptions for both private bushfire shelters and community fire refuges under certain circumstances.

The fire services commissioner is currently in discussions with two local councils about taking part in the community fire refuge pilot program.

Bushfire response: buyback scheme — consultation

4057. MS BROAD — To ask the Minister for Higher Education and Skills (for the Minister for Bushfire Response): In relation to the implementation of recommendation 46 of the bushfire royal commission progress report:

- (1) What consultation has been undertaken to date with high-fire risk communities regarding the implementation of this recommendation.
- (2) Where have these consultations been held.
- (3) How many people have been consulted.

ANSWER:

I am advised that:

Over 200 people in fire-affected communities have participated in the landowner information and consultation process held in November and December 2011 as part of the state government’s bushfire buyback scheme.

Sessions were held in the fire-affected communities of Bendigo, Chum Creek, Churchill, Flowerdale, Kinglake, Marysville, Myrtleford, St Andrews, Strathewen, Wandong, Whittlesea, and Yarra Glen. After 16 days of consultation, the final information and consultation sessions were held in Melbourne on Friday, 9 December 2011.

The consultation sessions gave potentially eligible landowners and other interested parties the opportunity to raise issues and concerns. Details of the scheme will be finalised after feedback from these sessions has been taken into consideration.

Planning: bushfires — roadside vegetation management

4060.
