HANSARD¹⁵⁰

1866–2016

Following a select committee investigation, Victorian Hansard was conceived when the following amended motion was passed by the Legislative Assembly on 23 June 1865:

That in the opinion of this house, provision should be made to secure a more accurate report of the debates in Parliament, in the form of Hansard.

The sessional volume for the first sitting period of the Fifth Parliament, from 12 February to 10 April 1866, contains the following preface dated 11 April:

As a preface to the first volume of “Parliamentary Debates” (new series), it is not inappropriate to state that prior to the Fifth Parliament of Victoria the newspapers of the day virtually supplied the only records of the debates of the Legislature.

With the commencement of the Fifth Parliament, however, an independent report was furnished by a special staff of reporters, and issued in weekly parts.

This volume contains the complete reports of the proceedings of both Houses during the past session.

In 2016 the Hansard Unit of the Department of Parliamentary Services continues the work begun 150 years ago of providing an accurate and complete report of the proceedings of both houses of the Victorian Parliament.

ANSWERS TO CONSTITUENCY QUESTIONS

Answers have been incorporated in the form supplied by the departments on behalf of the appropriate ministers and received by Hansard in the period shown.

12 February to 25 February 2016South Eastern Metropolitan Region

Question asked by: Mr Rich-Phillips
Directed to: Minister for Planning
Asked on: 21 October 2015

ANSWER:

The Waverley Park Transmission Lines Advisory Committee (Advisory Committee) submitted its report to me on 17 February 2015.

On 17 December 2015 I wrote to all submitters who both opposed and supported the application to amend the permit, to advise that I have publicly released the report of the Advisory Committee.

I have advised the submitters that I now feel obliged to recommend in support of the findings of the Advisory Committee to the Governor in Council that the permit should be amended to release Mirvac from its obligation.

However, a recommendation to the Governor in Council to issue an amended permit will not be made until I have further considered the Community Benefits Package proposed by Mirvac. I will need to be satisfied that the package provides an adequate offset for the impacts of not undergrounding the powerlines.

As part of that consideration I have given all submitters and Mirvac the opportunity to consider the Advisory Committee's report. All parties will also have the opportunity to have a say on the content of a revised Community Benefits Package.

Question asked by: Mrs Peulich
Directed to: Special Minister of State
Asked on: 25 November 2015

ANSWER:

All Ministers participate in meetings with organisations and members of the public as part of their daily activities, and in fulfilling their duties as ministers and members of parliament.

The Government expects that Ministers will abide by the Ministerial Code of Conduct. Ministers must also act in accordance with the Lobbyist Code of Conduct.

Specific measures to avoid any real or perceived conflict of interest arising from a Minister's activities may include obtaining departmental advice on the content of a meeting, the presence of departmental or ministerial staff, the presence of official probity auditors, or rejecting meeting request altogether. It is each Minister's responsibility to ensure that all necessary measures are put in place to reflect the requirements of any individual meeting.

It is incumbent on individuals who are acting as lobbyists on behalf of third parties to disclose that relationship, to register as lobbyists on the Victorian Government Register of Lobbyists, and to abide by the Lobbyist Code of Conduct. Information is available at www.lobbyistregister.vic.qov.au

South Eastern Metropolitan Region

Question asked by: Ms Springle
Directed to: Premier
Asked on: 11 February 2016

ANSWER:

I understand that many residents are disappointed that Mirvac can't be forced to put the powerlines underground.

The same powerlines that run through Waverley Park run through my own street, so this issue is front of mind for me every day.

I am advised by the Planning Minister that legal advice indicated that a decision contrary to the planning panel's recommendations would most likely be defeated.

So rather than put the community through another drawn out process, that had little chance of success, the Minister decided to focus on how to get the best possible outcome for the residents through an enhanced Community Support Package.

I have called on Mirvac to act immediately to clean up parts of the estate where they have left a mess. This work is well underway.

The Minister has said that he will contact residents before the end of this month with details on the consultation process.
