

Circulating and Moving Amendments

Government Business Program Completion Time

At the completion time, usually 5.00 pm on a Thursday, the Chair interrupts debate. Members can no longer debate any bills on the business program. The Chair asks members to vote on all programmed bills.

The Assembly votes on all government amendments that have been public for at least two hours. Non-government amendments cannot be moved or considered by the Assembly, even if they have already been circulated.

Find out more: Fact Sheet A4: Government Business Program.