5. APPROACH OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE GOVERNOR.—The approach of His Excellency the Governor was announced by the Usher of the Black Rod.

His Excellency came into the Council Chamber, and commanded the Usher of the Black Rod to desire the immediate attendance of the Legislative Assembly, who being come with their Speaker, His Excellency was pleased to speak as follows:—

MR. PRESIDENT AND HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL :

MR. SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY :

I have taken the earliest opportunity after the recent Conjoint Election of calling you together for the First Session of the Forty-third Parliament of Victoria.

During the Session you will be asked to give consideration to many important matters, including some upon which action was foreshadowed during the recent election campaign.

Since I last addressed you the State has suffered the loss of the Honorable Wilfred John Mibus, who at the time of his death was Minister of Water Supply and Minister of Mines. Mr. Mibus served the State with distinction both as a Minister of the Crown and a member of the Legislative Assembly.

We also mourn the deaths of the Honorable Ian Macfarlan, a former Premier of this State, the Honorable Sir Albert Lind, a former Deputy Premier, and the Honorable Sir Ewen Cameron. Each, as you know, gave long and honorable service as a Minister of the Crown.

MR. SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY :

A Supply Bill to make further provision for the services of the financial year 1964-65 will be presented to you immediately.

In due course detailed estimates of Revenue and Expenditure for the new financial year will be submitted to you, as well as Supplementary Estimates for the financial year 1963-64 which has just recently concluded. Taking into account the expenditure to be covered by this supplementary appropriation, the Consolidated Revenue Account for 1963-64 will show expenditure as having exceeded current revenues for that year by a modest amount.

It is proposed that when Supply has been granted the Parliament should adjourn for a short period to enable Ministers to prepare their legislative programme.

MR. PRESIDENT AND HONORABLE MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL :

MR. SPEAKER AND MEMBERS OF THE LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY :

The comprehensive programme of legislation to be placed before you will include two Bills to amend The Constitution Act Amendment Act. One which will be introduced immediately will provide for the appointment of a fifteenth Minister of the Crown, who may be either a member of the Legislative Council or of the Legislative Assembly.

The other will provide for a re-arrangement of the boundaries of Legislative Assembly Districts and Legislative Council Provinces.

Legislation dealing with road traffic infringements will again be placed before Parliament, as will a Bill to amend the Workers Compensation Act.

A Bill to amend and consolidate the Maintenance Act will be submitted to bring about a greater measure of co-operation with other States, particularly in the field of interstate enforcement.

Other measures will relate to—the provision of loans for the establishment of pine plantations on farm properties ;

 the purchase of houses from the Housing Commission on a purchase-lease basis ;
 the long service leave provisions of the Labour and Industry Act and the Railways Act ;

the constitution of a Consumer Council, consisting of persons experienced in manufacturing and retailing, as well as representatives of housewives and consumers generally, to safeguard the interests of consumers ;

service by women on juries under a scheme which will recognize the duty of both men and women alike ;

the re-organization of the activities of the Aborigines Welfare Board and the transfer of certain of its functions to the Social Welfare Branch of the Chief Secretary's Department ;

the establishment of minimum standards for car safety belts sold in Victoria ;

Portland Harbor Trust Railway land ; the extension of State Land Tax concessions ; and a Statutory Committee to advise on country town development.

My advisers are very conscious of the greater responsibility which devolves upon them as Ministers of the Crown arising from the circumstances in which this newly-elected Parliament is meeting.

They are conscious too of the high level of prosperity and development prevailing in Victoria ; but are, nevertheless, mindful that this is no time for complacency.

Our immediate future offers an exciting challenge ; a challenge to maintain our expansion, to diversify our production and to promote the export of the products of our labours.

In the ultimate this challenge must be met by the people but it is for the Government and this Parliament to provide the incentive.

With this thought in mind I formally open this First Session of the new Parliament, and in leaving you to the discharge of your important duties, I pray that the blessing of Almighty God will rest upon your deliberations.

Thereupon a copy of His Excellency the Governor's Speech was delivered to the President, and a copy to Mr. Speaker, and His Excellency withdrew from the Council Chamber.

The Legislative Assembly then withdrew.

3. If only one person be proposed and seconded, the President shall declare—“ That has been chosen to hold the place in the Senate rendered vacant by the death of Senator the Honorable Harrie Walter Wade”.

4. If more than one person be proposed and seconded, the person to hold the vacant place shall, subject to the following rules, be chosen by ballot.

5. Before giving directions to proceed with the ballot, the President shall ask if any Member desires to propose any other person to hold the vacant place, and, no other person being proposed, the ballot shall be proceeded with, after which no person shall be proposed.

6. Each Member present shall be provided with a ballot-paper initialled by the Clerks of the two Houses, and shall write thereon the name of one of the persons duly proposed, and shall place his ballot-paper in the ballot-box.

7. If two or more persons be proposed and seconded, the proposer of each of such persons shall name some Member present to be a scrutineer. The scrutineers, with the Clerks of the two Houses, shall retire and ascertain the number of votes for each person; and the scrutineers shall make a written report of the result to the President showing the number of votes for each person.

8. No informal vote shall be taken into account.

9. If on the first ballot no person shall have received an absolute majority of the votes polled, a second ballot shall be taken, and the name of the person who shall have received the fewest votes at the first ballot shall be excluded; but if at the first ballot the names of only two persons be submitted and the number of votes for such persons be equal, the scrutineers shall by drawing lots determine which of such persons shall be chosen to hold the vacant place, and the person whose name shall be first drawn shall be deemed to have been duly chosen.

10. Until one of the persons proposed obtains an absolute majority of the votes polled, or (as the case may be) is chosen by lot to hold the vacant place, successive ballots shall be taken, and at each such ballot the name of the person who shall have received the fewest votes at the preceding ballot shall be excluded.

11. If on any ballot it shall be necessary to decide between two or more persons as to which one is to be excluded from a subsequent ballot through the number of votes for such persons being equal, a special ballot shall be taken at which the names of only those persons shall be submitted, and the name of the person having the fewest votes at such special ballot shall be excluded; but if on any special ballot it shall be necessary to decide between two or more persons as to which one is to be excluded from a subsequent ballot through the number of votes for such persons being equal, the scrutineers by drawing lots shall determine which one of such persons shall be excluded, and the name of the person last drawn shall be excluded.

12. If at any ballot, other than the first ballot or a special ballot hereinbefore provided for, the names of only two persons be submitted and the number of votes for such persons be equal, the scrutineers shall, by drawing lots, determine which of those persons shall be chosen to hold the vacant place, and the person whose name shall be first drawn shall be deemed to have been duly chosen.

13. As soon as any person obtains an absolute majority of the votes polled, or (as the case may be) is chosen by lot to hold the vacant place, the President shall declare—"That _____ has been chosen to hold the place in the Senate rendered vacant by the death of Senator the Honorable Harrie Walter Wade".

14. The President shall in all cases be entitled to a vote.

15. The records of the proceedings and the ballot-papers shall be retained by the Clerk of the Parliaments of the State of Victoria, who shall be the custodian thereof, and shall keep the ballot-papers safely for one year and thereafter destroy them.

The Honorable C. P. Stoneham, M.L.A., seconded the motion.
