* New entry.

Education and training

- (c) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser is to provide education and training sessions to members of Parliament about ethical issues and integrity matters, including training to new members of Parliament at the commencement of a Parliamentary term and training on any amendments to the Parliamentary standards or integrity system.

Records

- (d) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser is required to keep records of advice given and the factual information upon which it is based.

- 2 MS ALLAN — To move, That:
  - (1) The House directs the Speaker to join with the President in establishing a Parliamentary Integrity Adviser with the following roles and responsibilities:

Provision of advice

- (a) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser is to advise any member of Parliament, including former members of Parliament where relevant, when asked to do so by that member, on ethical issues and integrity matters concerning the exercise of his or her role as a member. The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's advice can be sought on a range of parliamentary matters including on the application of any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament that are relevant to members in their capacity as members of Parliament, the use of members' entitlements and declaration of potential conflicts of interests.
- (b) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's role is to give advice that is consistent with any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament, but does not include the provision of any legal advice.

Education and training

- (c) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser is to provide education and training sessions to members of Parliament about ethical issues and integrity matters, including training to new members of Parliament at the commencement of a Parliamentary term and training on any amendments to the Parliamentary standards or integrity system.

  - (m) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser can engage in outside employment that does not conflict with their role.
  - (n) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser may resign in writing to the Speaker and President, or may be removed from office for insolvency, proven misbehaviour or mental incapacity on a resolution agreed to by both Houses.

- 2 MS ALLAN — To move, That:
  - (1) The House directs the Speaker to join with the President in establishing a Parliamentary Integrity Adviser with the following roles and responsibilities:

Provision of advice

The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's advice can be sought on a range of parliamentary matters including on the application of any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament that are relevant to members in their capacity as members of Parliament, the use of members' entitlements and declaration of potential conflicts of interests.
- (b) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's role is to give advice that is consistent with any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament, but does not include the provision of any legal advice.

Education and training

- (c) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser is to provide education and training sessions to members of Parliament about ethical issues and integrity matters, including training to new members of Parliament at the commencement of a Parliamentary term and training on any amendments to the Parliamentary standards or integrity system.

  - (1) The House directs the Speaker to join with the President in establishing a Parliamentary Integrity Adviser with the following roles and responsibilities:

Provision of advice

The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's advice can be sought on a range of parliamentary matters including on the application of any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament that are relevant to members in their capacity as members of Parliament, the use of members' entitlements and declaration of potential conflicts of interests.
- (b) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser's role is to give advice that is consistent with any legislation or other guidelines adopted by Parliament, but does not include the provision of any legal advice.

In releasing the statement, the Parliamentary Integrity Adviser cannot release the advice provided to the member.

Reporting

- (m) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser can engage in outside employment that does not conflict with their role.
- (n) The Parliamentary Integrity Adviser may resign in writing to the Speaker and President, or may be removed from office for insolvency, proven misbehaviour or mental incapacity on a resolution agreed to by both Houses.
